The Holistic Magnetic Slippers

Black or Cream

Brocade or faux leather slippers with removable magnetic insoles. These are beautiful silk slippers for the home or office (not for outdoor purposes). They have removable magnetic insoles, for in-flight, office or home relaxation and serenity. Many cultures have used magnets for centuries to improve the flow of energy (chi) in the body. It aids circulation and is meant to be very good if you work at a computer screen daily, to re-ground you! They come in a silk pouch so that you can take them to work.

This leather range has been designed by Kimchi. All of their designs are crafted entirely by hand and like any piece of original art, are individually signed and numbered by the artist, therefore no two designs will be the same. Please note that each item will differ slightly from the photograph illustrated.

The full stunning collection blends the boundaries between art and fashion.
